DETAILED ACTION

1. Current office action is in response to amendment filed 8/13/2008, claims 1 and 21 have been amended, claims 9, 11-14, and 22 have been cancelled, claims 1-8, 10, 15-21 and 23-28 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-8, 10, 15-21 and 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Luciano, Jr. et al. (Us 6,887,154 B1) in view of Acres et al. (US 6,319,125).

Re claim 1, previously indicated in office action dated 5/14/2008, Luciano teaches a method of playing a gaming system played by a plurality of players where a jackpot is awarded, the method comprising: players playing an underlying wagering game in which wagers are made by players; when an outcome occurs in the underlying wagering game that identifies that a jackpot is to be awarded to at least one of said players, entering a special bonus event for all of said players presently playing the underlying wagering game (abstract, col 2: 20-67; col 3, 1-17; col 4, 29-60; col 6: 32-49), the special bonus event providing a chance to be awarded bonuses; However Luciano does not explicitly teach randomly selecting bonuses to be awarded in the special bonus event; and randomly selecting more than one but less than all of said players to be awarded the randomly selected bonuses and excluding at least one player from being awarded any bonus, said randomly selected bonuses being in addition to any awards some of said players may win continued play of the underlying wagering game. Luciano teaches that players who have an active status at the time of the progressive award triggering event are entitled to share in the secondary progressive prize (col 3: 1-13) are analogies to all of said players presently playing the underlying wagering game. Acres teaches when the player wins the game, a jackpot equaling some multiple of wager in the form of coins, tokens or credits are awarded. Additionally bonus prizes are awarded as part of bonus promotions, such bonus promotions can be tiered into a main bonus prize and multiple secondary bonus prizes, plus optional consolation prizes and similar combinations. Seven different forms and combinations of bonuses are awarded to the player including cash, participation (mystery) progressive and multiple jackpot, welcome back, match play and personal progressive bonus prizes; each of which are controlled by a different bonus server and separate from the jackpot prize. After specific trigger events, randomly selecting bonuses to be awarded in the special bonus event; and randomly selecting more than one but less than all of said players to be awarded the randomly selected bonuses). It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have thought about the different distribution to attract additional players to the machine as stated by both Acres and Luciano.

Claims 2-8, 10, and 15-20 have been addressed in the previous action and are also rejected by Luciano in view of Acres, specific sections cited in the previous action.

Art Unit: 3715

Claims 21 and 23-28, the method of playing a gaming system played by a plurality of players where a jackpot is awarded is substantially the same as claims 1-8, 10, 15-20 discussed above and will not be repeated herein.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 8/13/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant has argued that “for each of the cash bonus, mystery bonus and progressive bonus forms, the bonus prize is awarded to selected eligible players, while all the remaining players are awarded a fixed consolation prize. The examiner respectfully disagrees with the argument provided by the applicant, as cited in office action, Acre teaches of (The bonus prize can be tiered into a main bonus prize and multiple secondary bonus prizes, plus optional consolation prizes, and “similar combinations.” the claims above) Col 4, lines 30-32. The examiner best understood it to mean that the consolation prize is not given to all eligible players as the consolation prize is optional. Furthermore, col 5, lines 41-43 also recite “a consolation prize is awarded at all active gaming devices except the winning gaming device”, also excluding at least one player from being awarded any bonus.

Applicant further argues “randomly selecting bonuses to be awarded in the special bonus event”, that Acres fails to teach randomly selecting bonuses, the examiner respectfully disagrees, with mystery bonus prize, Acres teach that there's are three kinds of mystery bonuses to be awarded, first a car is awarded when the value of the bonus pool substantially equals a lucky number falling between ten thousand and forty thousand. In addition, progressively larger secondary cash prizes ranging between $100 and $400 and consolation prizes of $50 are also awarded. (Col 6, lines 19-24). The examiner best understood these prizes to be awarded randomly instead of simple one bonus jackpot argued by the applicant. Therefore the examiner asserts that the combination of Luciano in view of Acres teaches the invention as claimed by the applicant.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
